To Whom It May Concern:

My name is Angela Morse and my husband is a Gulfstream GIII Aviator and COR Maintenance Contract Officer with the United States Army. Throughout my husband's career, we have endured several moves and often times they can be very stressful. Our last assignment was in Germany and we were there for eight and a half years, so finding out we would be relocating to Huntsville, Alabama was exciting, but also apprehensive, because we knew nothing about the housing market or the area at all.

After searching endlessly for good schools for our daughter and good safe neighborhoods, we were finally able to pinpoint a good school district, but still needed a good realtor. This is where Mrs. Shirley Finnorn stepped in. After contacting numerous realtor's with none or very little response, we finally inquired about a particular house and Shirley emailed us back right away. Shirley explained to us that she would help us with whatever we needed and would even be willing to meet us upon our arrival in Huntsville! Needless to say, we were thrilled and relieved at the same time that she was so willing to help us with finding a place to live and sharing her thoughts about the Huntsville area. We had only ten days to find a home!

Shirley called us everyday to assist us in anything that we needed about different properties and homes. She drove us around to look at all sorts of homes and showed us the city of Huntsville. Shirley has been there for us every step of the way and has made the whole process of buying a home easy! Even down to the financing and negotiations that go along with the purchase of a home! Shirley is professional and friendly, she goes the extra mile for her clients and she assists in any way she can! I always felt very confident in calling Shirley with a question, because she would listen and get the answer we needed right away. Moving from Germany was stressful for our family with so much to do leaving there and then with all we had to endure on this side, but Shirley stepped in and made the process very easy with no stress on us at all! I have recommended Shirley to several of our friends that are coming to Huntsville and I would definitely recommend her to anyone that I know! She is amazing and we thank her so much for all she has done for our family and this long process of moving! We are very happy! Thank you Shirley! You are not just our realtor, but a family friend! :-)

Sincerely,
